

Orana Australian Small Business Advisory Service Presents a

One Day Website Building Workshop

Create a working website for your business without the IT speak and major expense!

Trainer : Glen Dunkley

iconnectyou.com.au

Glen is a Certified Inbound Marketing Professional and a Certified Social Media Marketer.

"I will show you how to build a website that works, without the high expense of hiring a web developer."

You will learn how to:

- confidently use the site admin section
- add and layout pages
- add text and write for your audience
- add and optimise images and video
- add blog posts
- use keywords for Google
- use content marketing.

All through an easy to use platform with drag and drop page building and the ability to edit and view simultaneously.

If you have ever wanted a website for your business, but have been put off by the cost or the challenge, this is for you!

This workshop is limited to ten small businesses or business intenders.

When: Thursday 16 June 2016

Where: TAFE Western Gilgandra Campus

Time: 9am- 4pm with breaks

Cost: $170 per person*, including lunch
